

I do not want any telemarketing calls by anyone regardless of their efforts, excuses or reasons. Telemarketing is harassment. If I want to do business with a company I will call them! Keep Indiana law strong and in effect. This is evident by the number of people who have signed up. The Peoples wishes should be heard, not corporations