

Keep the do not call list. If we wanted a product we all know how to look in the phone book. I have a 80 year old mother who gets unwanted calls every day about products that do not relate to her.