

First, unsolicited goods are totally unwelcomed. We are on the WI Do Not Call list b/c we are forced to be by the telemarketers. The criteria specified by the WI no call list is more stringent b/c of the federal criteria. Our law should be honored under states rights. The idea of telemarketers taking advantage of citizens of WI and weakening the law is outrageous. There is no good or valid reason the No Call state law should be done away with. There are many issues that have both state and federal laws we must abide by. As long as the state's No Call law complies and meets the criteria with the federal law, the state law should remain.

Wisconsin government has a better understanding of what the state needs and wants rather than telemarketers and the federal government.
