

I pay for my telephone and resent anyone calling me if I am on the Indiana No-Call list. It is my phone line and I choose to have no one call for sales purposes. They interfere with family dinner time. Do not change our law.