

Dear FCC I wanted to let you know that I agree with the dropping of the Morse requirement . I think this will help with getting more new radio ops into this hobby. and make things a lot easier for the testing VE's I think this is a step long over due and a great step in the right direction for the hobby.
Thank you for your time and letting me voice my opinion
Frank Lombardi