

I support the removal of Morse Code testing for HAM radio.

This is an outdated, and obsolete mode of communications.

Another improvement would be to remove the frequency allocation for morse code on all amateur bands. This would free up valuable spectrum for all amateurs to use.