

I oppose removing the Morse Code requirement for Amateur Radio licensing. Emergency preparedness, communications reliability, and Amateur Radio operating procedures would each suffer if Morse Code is eliminated as a requirement for HF spectrum access.