

This is a shakedown attempt by Massport. The FCC should only rule in Massport's favor if there is a clear showing of a safety hazard caused by Continental's WAP, and explanation of why that same hazard is not caused by the airport's own wireless network.