

I support the removal of the code requirement from the amateur licensing requirements.