

I feel that the code should be dropped from the HF for ham radio operators in General class. Code has it's place but it should be in the extra class. As a member of No Code International, I support the elimination of morris code from the general class.