

I support the removal of the Morse Code requirement for the General Class Amateur Radio License. Bringing in new, young hams is critical to maintaining the Amateur Radio user population in the United States. I would, however, recommend keeping the 5 WPM Morse Code requirement for the Amateur Extra class license.