

I support the elimination of code for the General license. It should be kept for the Extra license.