

I support dropping all code requirements for all hf bands and open up the the band to new comers and maybe we can save a dying art because if we dont resolve this matter soon amateur radio will be a dead art or just left to the few old timer that survive.
so please DROP ALL CODE test