

Thank you for your recent decision to open the 3650-3700MHz band. Opening this band promotes equitable access to broadband connectivity, spurs innovation, helps lower infrastructure costs (and thus consumer prices), lessens congestion in urban areas, and helps connect rural areas. Please keep the public airwaves public.