

Thank you for opening this spectrum for public use. I believe the need for such access for community broadcasters like us (The Lorax Society) is in the highest public interest, e.g. preferable to allowing for-profit commercial cooptation of wireless media. It would be, therefore, counter-productive to reopen the rulemaking process for the purpose of imposing further licensing restrictions.