

I oppose the elimination of the CW requirement especially for the higher class license. Amateur radio relies on self discipline and a cw requirement demonstrates commitment to and recognition of the value of the service. In addition, the ARRL has never explained why it formerly supported HIGHER CW requirements and why it NOW supports little or no requirement.