Section II - CONFLICT DECISION

All television broadcast licensees and permittees notified by the Commission about an interference conflict are required to file a conflict decision form. Licensees/permittees that do not submit a required conflict decision form by the deadline on page one will be assigned a channel by the Commission for post-transition DTV operation.

1. By the filing of this form, licensee/permittee hereby acknowledges receipt from the Commission of information regarding the nature of its interference conflict.

(indicate FCC Letter reference number here): 1002

First Round Conflict Decision:

2. Licensee/permittee makes the following decision about its interference conflict: (SELECT ONE)
a. <input checked="" type="radio"/>	Licensee/permittee decides to maintain its first round channel election and certifies that it has resolved its interference conflict(s), as demonstrated by its submission of: (Select at least one and all that apply)
(i) <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	a negotiated conflict resolution agreement. Licensee/permittee must complete Schedule A.
(ii) <input type="checkbox"/>	technical engineering data. Licensee/permittee must complete Schedule B - DTV Engineering.
b. <input type="radio"/>	Licensee/permittee decides not to maintain its first round channel election and changes its election for final DTV operation to its currently assigned in-core DTV channel: Indicate channel number.
NOTE: Post-transition rights to in-core NTSC channel currently assigned to the licensee/permittee for this station are released upon licensee/permittee receipt of a Commission tentative channel designation.
c. <input type="radio"/>	Licensee/permittee decides not to maintain its first round channel election and makes no channel election in the first round; accordingly, licensee/permittee elects to participate in the second round of elections.
NOTE: Post-transition rights to in-core channel(s) currently assigned to the licensee/permittee for this station are released.

International Coordination.

3 Is the licensee/permittee electing a channel that is subject to a pending international coordination issue?	<input type="radio"/> Yes <input checked="" type="radio"/> No
If yes, licensee/permittee must attach an explanation as an Exhibit to this form.	[Exhibit 1]
