

I am a Continental frequent traveler and I use the Boston Logan Airport frequently. I see no reason to force the airline to discontinue offering free internet service to its paid members. Continental is more than capable of administering their internet service in a professional and precise manner. I urge Massport to exercise its administrative oversight on far worthier issues. Thank you.