

I fly Continental Airlines almost exclusively and am a member of the President's Club. A primary reason is the ease and convenience of internet access in the Presidents Club. The public should have the right to information access without an airport arbitrarily establishing a monopoly that requires the public to pay twice. I already pay for the service via my Presidents Club fee.