

I am a young (20 years old) armateur radio operator, end an electrical engineering student, who enjoys the radio art. I see the Morse code requirement as an outdated mode that is easily replaceable by many digital “off the shelf” modes. The WRC-03 made the right move in removing the requirement, I think the US should follow their lead.

J. Register

KG4OBF