

I support Continental's Petition to the FCC. It is important that Continental continue to provide its own free wireless service to members airports. My colleagues and I rely on Continental's internet access services when we fly. This is important for our business as well as personal needs, like receiving updates on the condition of my 99 year old mother. It has been my understanding that internet services are a fundamental right belonging to the public as do all the communication airwaves.