

I support the 5WPM Morse Code requirement. In the event of a terrorist attack, this may be the only means of communication available. Therefore, it should be retained and not allowed to disappear from use.