

Telecommunication tracking of students via GPS is essential to 21st century school operations. Through real time tracking, fuel can be saved, speed can be checked, routes verified, overtime saved. All of this saves taxpayer money in the longrun, lives of citizens. It can only be done right through telecommmunication GPS