

I am in full support of dropping the 5 wpm code test for amateur radio testing its a old timers mode of comiucations and its time to open up hf radio to new digital modes and do away with the outdated modes of comiucations.