

Low power FM radio has far reaching benefits to small communities. Large conglomerate FN stations do not speak for communities, only their paying advertisers. Local FM is a free market community forum. It should not be censored or otherwise limited.