Comment : Concerning the 5 wpm requirment i think that its requirment is wrong to obtain a amature license dont get me wrong it is another mode in amature radio and those who wish to pursue its use should continue as with any of the other parts of the hobbie, but with all the other avenues of available cellphones game devices and the internet no wonder our numbers have declined so i feel that removal of cw telegraphy would be th next step in inviting and redirecting potencial new amatures to the (Hobbie) Thank You Mr.Larry Demakeas (kc6wbn)
