

Kellogg's SUPERMARKET CHALLENGE

OH NO! SOMEONE FORGOT TO PICK UP THE KELLOGG'S!

You've come to the supermarket with your parents and someone has dropped all the Kellogg's products. Now it's up to you to return them to where they belong.

Use your Up, Down, Left, and Right arrow keys to navigate the maze. Once you have picked up a product, you have to put it back where it belongs, but be careful, there's not a lot of time.

After you return a Kellogg's product, you must find the next one. Remember that time is ticking away, so pick up as many boxes as possible and get them to the the right place before time runs out!

Good Luck!
