

I am a wireless ISP and do not want to see 900mhz, 2.4, and 5.x disappear. I would also like to have enough foresight from the FCC to look out for frequenices we could share and use. We provide a needed high-speed service to many parts of rural Indiana and Illinois.