

I have owned and operated Wireless Internet Service providers for over 5 years in rural Nebraska. Allowing this spectrum range available for Wireless Internet Service providers would allow us small guys to improve or networks and expand our customer services. Like many WISP operators already know, this spectrum is ideal for broadband applications.