

WISP's in Rural America have a difficult time reaching remote areas with broadband do to the LOS issues with 2.4GHz and range issues of 900Mhz,,an unlicensed 700Mhz would be effective in overcoming those limitations for the bulk of the US geographical locations, small WISPs could not participate in auctions,,and the larger companies will not provide service to the underserved areas.