

I would like to have my support for unlicensed operation in the TV Broadcast bands. The potential for broadcasting data over just one channel is 113Mbps. There are 6-7 tv stations broadcasting in my local area. I believe that this is representative of most areas. I propose allowing unlicensed use of specific channels which may or may not vary by area. Even with the rise of hdef these bands are mostly unused.