

We work with several Rural Telcos and CLECs - some with national coverage. Due to the increased interference with Wi-Fi types of networks and the increased competition within Telecommunications, it is imperative that Wireless ISPs have access to more spectrum ASAP.