

What has happened in the gulf is a good example of why WISPs need broadcast channels, not to mention the number of towers it takes to cover a few blocks in a heavily treed area- so bad for the environment! Thanks for your time.