

We need these frequencies to cover the rural areas, due to tree density I need towers every 2 miles to support the customers that need wireless. The cost per tower is outrageous. We need to resolve line of sight issues to enable people to use the technology that is already available. We need to serve the areas that others won't. Cable is costly, DSL not available. We need these channels freely available.