

Middle-class backed operations cannot play in the auction game. We do not need a telecommunications industry made up of spectrum "haves" and "have nots". We need middle class spectrum policy. Making good spectrum available to unlicensed broadband operations is a good start and I support 04-186 as a step toward a spectrum middle-class that America so disparately needs to thrive and become the number one broadband adopting country in the world.