

There are a lot of television programs that are "Closed Captioned" or "En Español" for people who don't understand the English Language. Why is it that we can't view Spanish shows with English Captioning? There are a lot of Spanish shows that are broadcasted which Americans who don't speak Spanish can't view because we can't understand the language.