

Please do not allow celular telephone use aboard airborne aircraft. Many companies and agencies are establishing policies to restrict or forbide cell phones in their establishments because of the obvious disturbances from uncaring cell phone users.

The last thing I (and many others) want to be subjected to is nattering people shouting into their cell phones at 35,000 feet.

Please do not succumb to the industry who is pushing this effort.