

Supporting captioning on all TV programs is critical to the equality of Deaf people in the U.S. Without such captioning Deaf people are routinely excluded from news, current events, culture and terrifyingly, emergencies (such as the recent hurricane or September 11th). All programs must be captioned and those not complying with the regulations requiring such captioning should be sanctioned. Thank you.