

Dear FCC, On balance, I am in agreement with the NRPM addressed in proceeding 05-235. I see no reason why proficiency in a single operating mode (code), of many available, should be a licensing requirement in the amateur service.