

I am in favor of eliminating the five word per minute morse code requirement for Amateur Radio license. I feel this mode of operation is outdated and should be eliminated. I also feel that all current Tech license operators should be elevated to General License. The hurricane's that have occurred showed the value of Amateur Radio.

If more Ham's had the General class license it would benefit all communities in time of disasters. Thank You, Le Roy McIntosh