

As a consumer who experiences frustration at the poor quality of captioning, particularly of news programs, in the Greater Boston area, I strongly support this petition for the increased accessibility and accuracy of closed-captioning on television, both broadcast and cable.