

As a deaf person captioning is critical to me. Increased availability and quality of captioning is highly desirable. The growth of captioning will not occur solely as a good samaritan deed on the part of the broadcasters. Stronger regulations and enforcement by the FCC is needed.