

I request that FCC regulate the quality of closed captioning on TV. At times it has been poor or non-existent. When this happens, I have no one to contact at that moment. I am unable to watch the rest of the tv program.

When I complain I may or may not get a response. If I do get a response, it usually say there was no problem at our end. Check your tv.