

Please consider establishing a morse code proficiency "endorsement" to General and above license classes, and restricting access to selected frequencies within the current amateur radio allocation to those with that endorsement, otherwise consider requiring proficiency as a requirement for at least one license class, specifically for Amateur Extra. Respectfully W0ARO