

I rely a lot on closed captioning. It is often the TV networks do not include captioning and sometimes bypassing the captions. That ends up for me to watch the programs, even emergencies without captions while the hearing people got the information. Please consider the service of closed captions.