

I am writing to express opposition to implementation of broadband over powerline transmission due to the inevitable interference it will create for HAM radio and other devices.