

I am deaf and an avid user of the Internet. It disappoints me that much of the audio portion of the Internet is not accessible for someone like me. Please know that I believe strongly that captioning should be available as an option, just as it is available on all new TV sets.