Dear Ms. Dortch:

TANDBERG files this letter in response to the Commission's Public Notice seeking comment on the above referenced application (the "Application").¹

TANDBERG encourages the Commission to grant the Application because the acquisition of PanAmSat by Intelsat will benefit customers that utilize satellites for video contribution and distribution.

TANDBERG offers powerful end-to-end real-time video solutions to customers. We are helping to reshape the communications landscape on every continent and in nearly every industry. Our growth worldwide has been driven by the success of our customers' use of visual communications to elevate performance – in mission critical communication and day-to-day operations. For the executive desk, the meeting room, the training facility, the hospital, the school, or in the field with armed forces, TANDBERG brings people together from worlds apart.

TANDBERG supplies Intelsat with hardware, software and technical support for video contribution and distribution. As such, TANDBERG is an interested party in this proceeding. TANDBERG supports the grant of the Application because we believe that combined, Intelsat and PanAmSat will provide their customers with a more comprehensive set of services from a single provider, including state-of-the-art video contribution and distribution services that utilize TANDBERG equipment and services. Video customers of the two companies will benefit from this one-stop shopping option.

TANDBERG therefore encourages the Commission to grant the Application.

Respectfully submitted,

Reggie Bradford, President
