

i am writing as a consumer who supports quality closed captioning during live and prerecorded tv broadcasting. today, it is disheartening and frustrating to find programs on tv with no captions, to try and decipher poor quality or garbled captions, to have captions disappear minutes before the program ends, and to have captions block text information that is a part of the program.