

I travel across the country frequently nowadays and am very frustrated with the incomplete TV news across the country. when the news go from national to local, the captions stop. The size of the population should not determine the completeness or availability of captions on the news. All of us, deaf, hard of hearing, hearing, etc. need complete news regardless of where we live.